Submitter approved emblazon

Name - Returned for conflict with Eiríkr Snorrason This name must be returned for conflict with the registered Eric Bjornsson. Both names are effectively identical in sound and only slightly different in appearance. The terminal -r in Eiríkr is not pronounced in all dialects and the difference in the initial vowel sound between Eiríkr and Eric is too small to clear the conflict. [Eiríkr Bjørnsson, 06/2017, R-Caid]

Device - Approved and forwarded but pending name conflict clearing.

6: Feodor Orion Tyresson - New Name

This submission is adding a second given name, Orion to an already registered name. Original documentation for the name included just for information.

Documentation for his original given name

Feodor is found as a late period Russian male given name from Paul Wickenden. Meaning "God's gift" Feodor Ivanovich', governor of the Kaianskii ratia. 15th Century. [Gra 311]

20: Taliesin Whitehart - New Name Change & New Device

Azure, a cauldron argent and overall a shaft of wheat Or

Old Item: Talcan Whitehart, to be retained as an alternate name.

Taliesin is lifted from the LoAR January 2020 acceptance of the submission of Taliesin Stalions. <snip>.

Commenters questioned whether a real person could be named after a semi-legendary figure such as the Welsh bard Taliesin. Taliesin was considered a historical person by writers in period, much like several saints whose actual existence is questionable by modern historical standards. Further, given that 12th-16th century English is full of examples of people named after explicitly mythological characters like Achilles, Helios, Hermes, Venus, Vulcan, etc., naming a child after a Welsh bard who was believed at the time to be a real person is plausible.
